We care about our customers; health and safety is our number one priority. If any decisions are made by the UK or Scottish Government that impact our planned events, we will communicate with customers directly and in a timely manner. We will follow current Scottish Government Guidance when taking bookings.

Scottish Rugby Hospitality is the only official hospitality provider at the stadium. We guarantee the best seats and a hospitality experience your guests will be talking about long after the final whistle has blown. Hospitality details are subject to change.
